

Extra information for Irish work for the week beginning the 11th of May

Page 122 (A) this is a look back on work completed on the future tense (Aimsir Fháistineach) using all the regular verbs. Use your Litriú copy and look over the rules and examples for changing the regular verbs to the Aimsir Fháistineach. Think about what each verb means and then fit them into the passage so that the passage makes sense.

Ar dtús - at first

Timpeall an tí - around the house

Na héadaí salacha - the dirty clothes

Ar feadh uair nó dhó - for an hour or two

Ma bhíonn an lá go deas - if the day is good

Luiteoga - leggings

Éadaí nua compordacha - new comfortable clothes

Try it first and then see how you got on by checking your answers against all the verbs on page 179 of your book!

We're starting on a new theme - 'Caitheamh Aimsire'.

Look at all the pictures on page 124 to help you understand the new words. Page 163 also has extra words which are based on the topic for 'Caitheamh Aimsire'

For the work on page 125 look at the poster first and then use your Irish dictionary to look up any words you don't understand.

Remember when answering the questions look at the question words and any of them that you don't understand - they are on page 167 of your book.
